SOUTH CHARLESTON HIGH SCHOOL
SOUTH CHARLESTON,
WEST VIRGINIA

PUBLISHED

BY

THE SENIOR CLASS ANNUAL STAFF

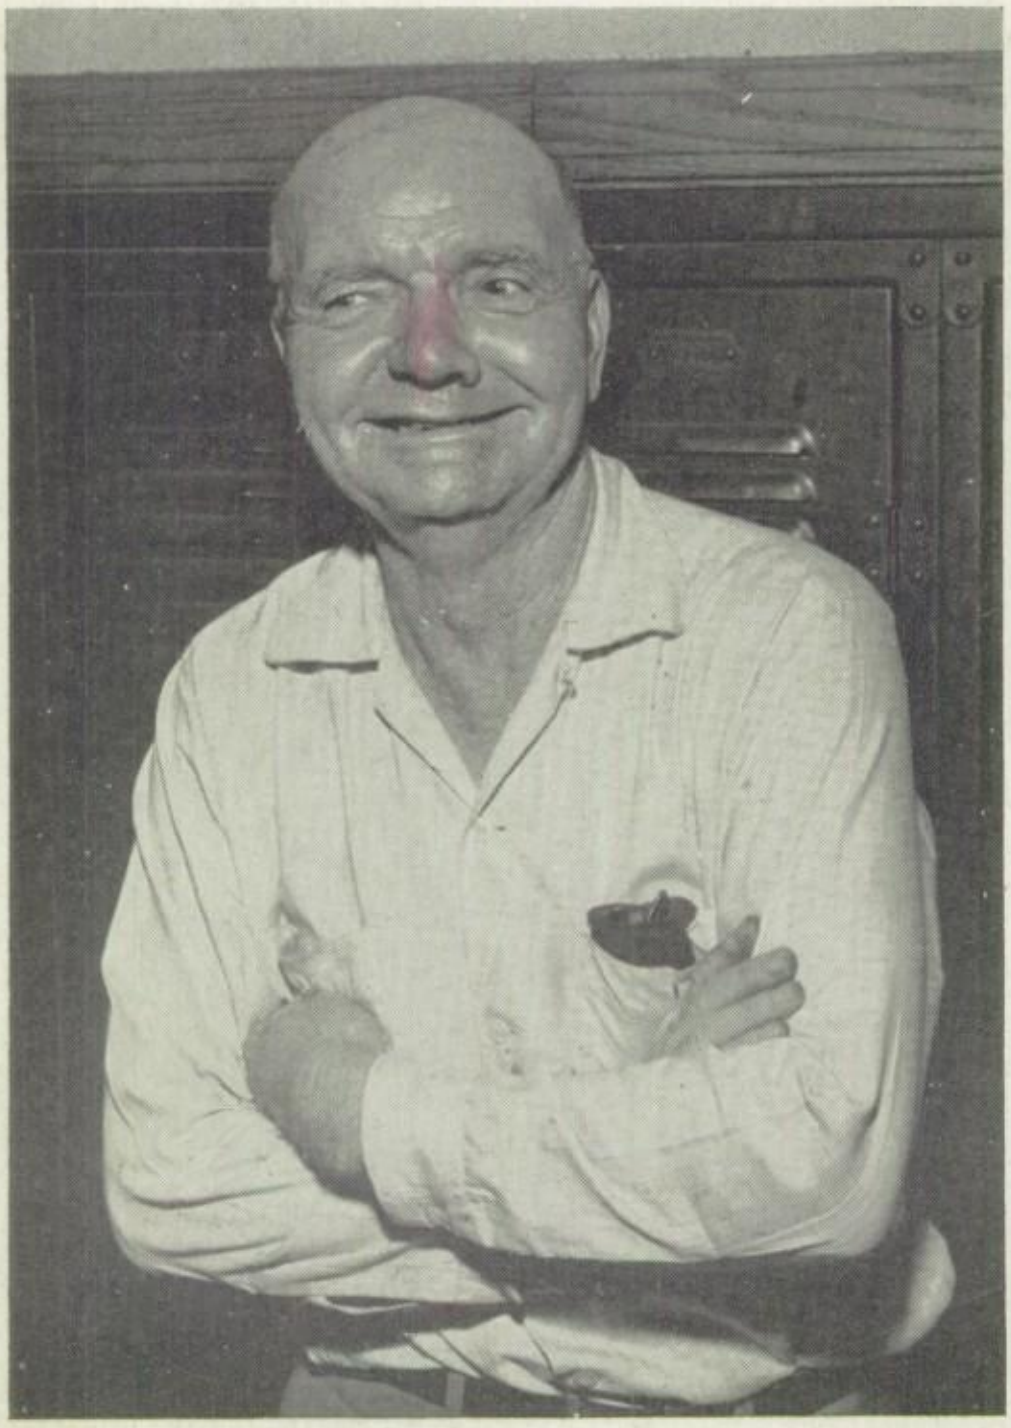
" . . . learn to live and live to learn . . . "

South Charleston High School, a member of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools, is near the center of West Virginia's chemical industry and serves a community of 20,000 people. Nine months a year forty teachers share with 1,300 students a part of the American heritage, the right to free inquiry.

In 1926 Miss Clara Smith became principal of the first South Charleston High School. From 1927, at two year intervals, important changes took place—the school had a new director, Mr. Robert L. Bryan; a new student government, the Student Council; and a new home, the present high school building.

Today student life is a pleasantly complicated picture —classroom studies with a background of pep-meetings and athletic events, assemblies and concerts, plays and dances. Through our activities we prepare to be leaders in America where recognition of the personality helps man gain full stature as an individual.

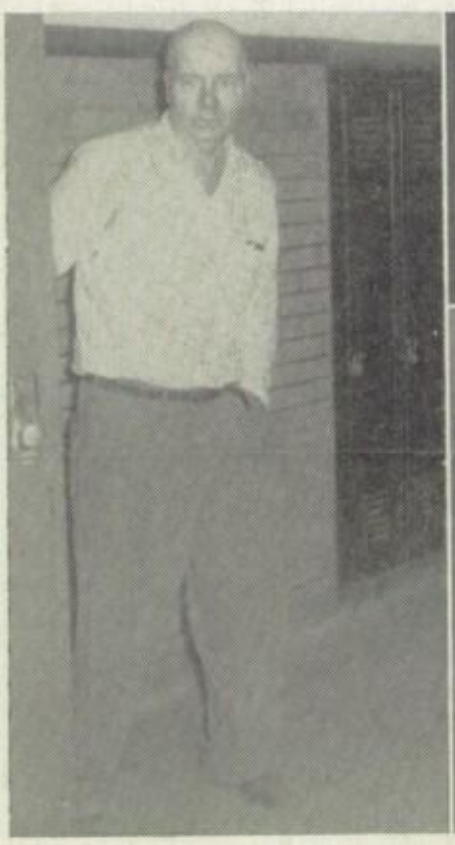
". . . . as one that loves his fellowmen . . . ."

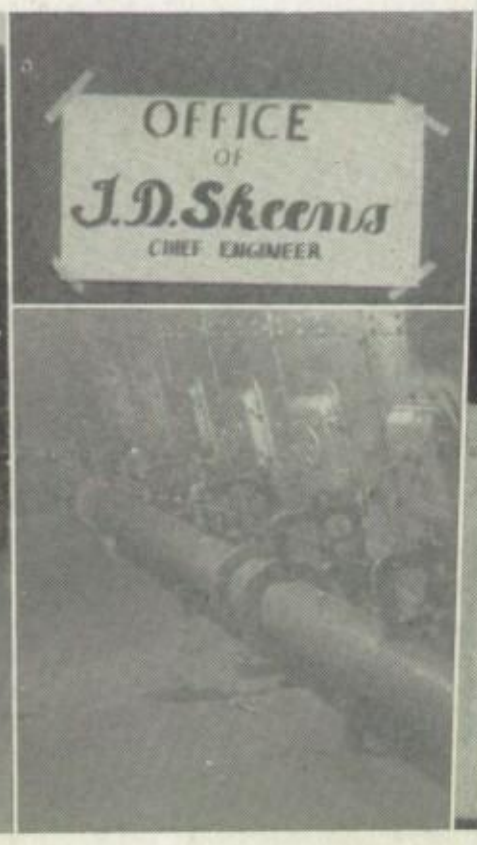


MR. J. D. SKEENS

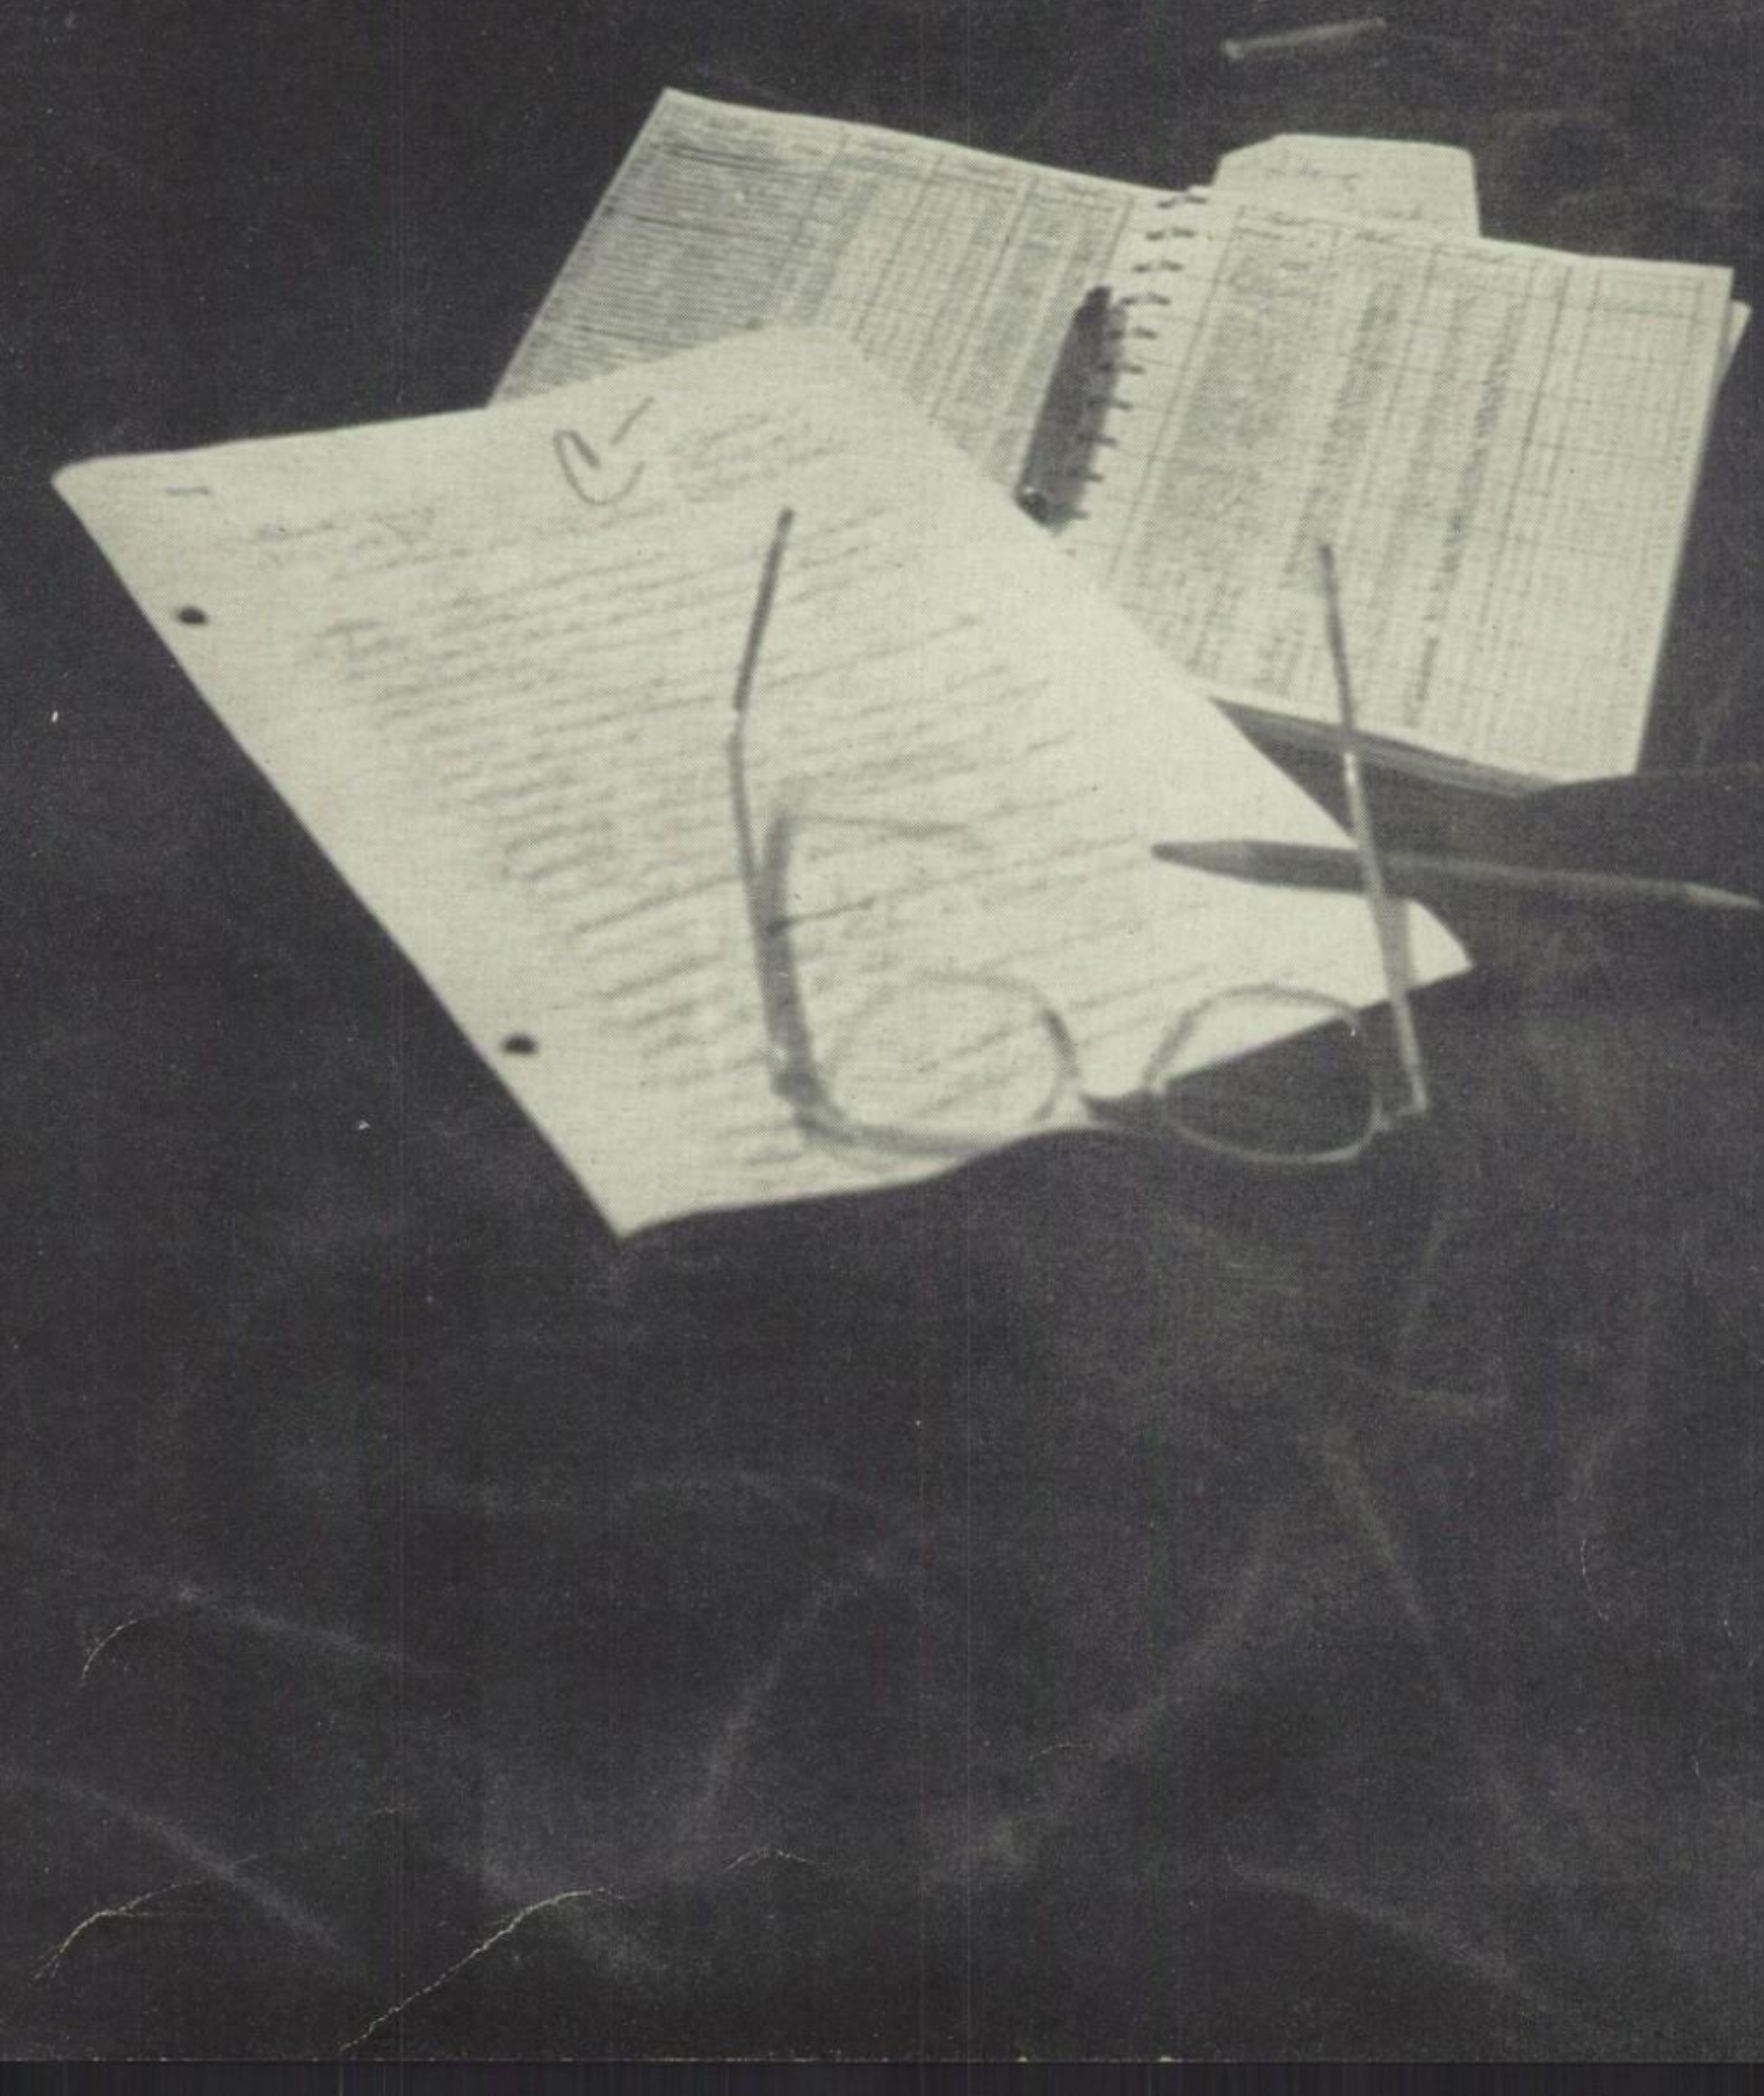
Chairs are carried, books found, doors unlocked, and lockers opened. Our hearts have also been opened to Mr. J. D. Skeens, who has constantly done these favors for us. He has taught lessons to many students—lessons in the philosophy of good humor, the worth of service, and the dignity of humility. Mr. Skeens is the unseen chaperone at many school activities for which he has set the stage, and for this service he never feels the spotlight's warmth.

For your unselfish service, for your willingness to grant important and small favors, and for the generosity with which you have shared so liberally your gracious spirit, Mr. Skeens, we dedicate the 1954 MEMOIRS to you.





" . . . and gladly did he learn, and gladly teach . . . "



MR. ROBERT L. BRYAN
Principal

Mr. Robert L. Bryan, trained in engineering, began his career in educational work as a shop teacher in South Charleston Junior High School. Three years later, in 1927, he became principal of South Charleston High School, where he has presented 2,926 seniors for graduation and where he is still an efficient administrator and friendly advisor.

Mr. Robert L. Bryan with his secretary, Mrs. Eula Mae Hess.

South Charleston High School Bands have always had a reputation as good musical organizations. Good bands are built with talented players, and talented players must be trained. Mr. A. E. Raspillaire not only directs the South Charleston High School Band but is instructor in instrumental music in the South Charleston grade schools, junior high, and high school. Through his seemingly boundless energy, the band is supplemented every year with "freshmen" bandsmen who soon become as competent as their seniors.

The band is one of the most active student groups at South Charleston High, and wherever it travels, South Charleston is publicized through quality band music.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Coach Jerome Ruby, in his first year as head football coach, reinstated the "T" formation in South Charleston High School football and his gridders posted a commendable five won, five lost record for the season.

In the season's opener, the DuPont Panthers took a 19-7 decision despite a strong second half defensive stand by the Black Eagles.

The SC Chemists defeated their arch rival, Charleston, in the statistics department, but failed to equal the Lions in scoring, as Charleston triumphed 12-6. Morris "Tank" Turley gained 89 yards in a great display of power running as John Bodkin, Chester Graham, and a junior, Richard Hawkins, opened huge holes in the Lions' defensive line.

Nitro's Wildcats exhibited amazing speed in the Eagles' third game and gained a 19-18 victory. Quarterback Jerry Chandler and fullback Morris Turley compiled considerable rushing yardage, but 4 fumbles by SC backs proved disastrous.

Ronnie Steele, Junior end and halfback, returned a punt 68 yards in the first two minutes to start a four touchdown parade which stopped Seth's Sherman Tide 28-13. Alext Hawkins teamed with end John Mandeville to complete three passes in four attempts to spark the win.

South Charleston scored quickly and often in their fourth game to defeat the East Bank Pioneers 26-13. Two spectacular plays of the game featured SC's wingmen, Mandeville and Steele. Mandeville hurled a long, south-paw pass to Steele for a TD on one play and the other was a beautifully executed jump pass by Steele and an equally remarkable catch by Mandeville.

State Champion Barboursville scored 28 points in lightning-like fashion in the second half, after the Rubymen had taken a 13-0 lead, to defeat the Black Eagles 28-13. Inspired by the dedication of lights on Oakes Field, an early aerial attack overwhelmed the Pirates in the first half, but the State Champs exhibited their powerful ground attack in the second half to win.

St. Albans' Red Dragons made up a 7 point deficit to defeat South Charleston 14-7 in the Eagles' eighth game although the Dragons were limited to only 97 yards rushing as Senior Guard Chester "Otto" Graham played great defensive ball.

The Orange and Black hit their offensive peak against Charleston Catholic's Fighting Irish as they trounced them 34-6. Triple-threat quarterback Jerry Chandler gained a phenomenal 147 rushing yards and also passed commendably in the 5 touchdown barrage.

In the final game of the season the fighting Chemists of SC topped the neighboring Dunbar Bulldogs in the traditional homecoming game 12-6. The superb play of graduating Senior fullback Morris Turley, ends John Mandeville, Lee Shriver, and John Ruddle, guards Chester Graham, John Bodkin, Joe Boley, center Walt Haddad, quarterback Jerry Chandler, halfbacks Mose Zegeer and Dale Jackson, and tackle Ned Guthrie returned the coveted Lions Club Trophy to the halls of South Charleston High School and evened the season record at 5-5. Featuring the game were 40 and 50 yard runs by Alex Hawkins and two TD plunges by Morris Turley.

The Senior Class of 1954 will always remember and gratefully acknowledge the fine display of fighting spirit and sportsmanship of the team and coaches.

BASKETBALL HIGHLIGHTS

South Charleston High School basketball coach, Clem "Buck" Jamison, was confronted with an entirely inexperienced group of hardwood hopefuls at the season's outset and the possibility of a season equalling that of the great star-studded team of the previous two years was regarded by most spectators with pessimism. However, the scrappy Black Eagles, at a height disadvantage all year, posted a regular season record of 14 wins and 5 losses, one of the best efforts in the School's history.

In the season's opener, the Chemists, after piling up a considerable lead in the early quarters, lost to Dunbar 46-45 as the Bulldogs took advantage of an Eagle slump in the third quarter. Senior Forward, Jerry Chandler, led the Eagle's scoring with 16 points.

Charleston, defending KVC champs, tired before a fast, sharp-shooting Eagle Squad as Jerry Chandler and Alex Hawkins bucketed 17 points apiece and guard, Roy Haning, tallied 14, the Eagles won 65-48.

In the second game with Dunbar, one of the three teams to defeat SC during the season, the full offensive power of Jamison's Cagers was realized as they trounced the Bulldogs 63-38. Jack Shamblin, rebounding in superb fashion, tallied 14 points to equal Jerry Chandler's output as they tied in high scoring honors. Roy Haning and Senior Center, Joe Stroupe, added 12 and 11 points, respectively, in the display of team balance.

The speedy Chemists stormed over the taller but less capable Nitro Wildcats 70-40. Joe Stroupe led in the scoring parade with 14 points and Jerry Chandler continued to keep his steady scoring pace with 13 markers.

East Bank, occupying second place in the KVC, overcame the hustling Black Eagles' lead in the last minute of the game to take a 62-56 decision. High scorers in the rugged battle were Jerry Chandler and Alex Hawkins with 19 points and 17 points, respectively.

Deadly shooting accuracy gave the Chemists an early lead against DuPont which they never relinquished in dropping the Panthers 78-70. Hitting on 55% of their shots, Chandler and Hawkins bucketed 19 markers and 18 markers, respectively, and Joe Stroupe cashed in on 15.

South Charleston moved into third place in the KVC by means of a 77-67 victory over a good St. Albans team. Jerry Chandler scored 32 points in the exciting game as his long, jumping one-handers swished the net in a good percentage of his tries. Joe Stroupe, rebounding well, scored 18 points.

Stonewall Jackson's champion Generals released a scoring avalanche and smothered the Eagles 91-58 as they controlled the rebounds and sunk a very high percentage of their shots. Jack Johnson, versatile reserve, earned a first team berth in this game as he led the reserves in floor play and headed the scoring column with 14 points.

Charleston Catholic, holding first place in the KVC, fell before the speedy Chemists 73-57 in losing their first contest of the season. Again it was Jerry Chandler who led SC, bucketing 24 points. Jack Johnson rebounded and passed to set up several scores hitting the hoop for 12 points. Joe Stroupe threw in 11.

A balanced attack proved the difference in the second encounter with Dupont. Chandler and Hawkins scored 15 each; Johnson came through with 14 and Stroupe hit for 12. After gaining an early 20-7 lead, the Eagles went on to soundly trounce the Belle quintet 75-44.

Expert shooting and a dependable fast break proved to be deciding factors in the Clendenin scrap as Jerry Chandler and Sophomore Jim Smith, the two side men of the Eagle fast break scored 25 points and 12 points, respectively. Jack Shamblin, hustling rebounder, rounded out the top scorers with 12.

Wheeling High School, displaying a slow, deliberate style of ball, failed to keep pace with SC's fast breaking Black Eagles as Alex Hawkins and Roy Haning mastered the 86-66 win. Haning, playing his best game of the season, topped all scorers with a 21 point effort.

The Eagles journeyed to Beckley and solidly defeated the Flying Eagles 67-59. Jerry Chandler exhibited a great style of jump shooting and driving speed as he took top scoring honors with 28 points. Haning scored 12.

A last half surge by a tall, rugged East Bank team gave the Pioneers a win over South Charleston. Alex Hawkins, though hampered by the Pioneers' height in starting the fast break, tallied 16 points.

The Black Eagles defeated a rough Huntington cage team in an overtime period which climaxed one of the season's most action-packed games. Guard Alex Hawkins, with a cool and calm deliberateness of purpose, directed the Eagles throughout the four regular periods. With the same tranquility Hawkins sank two foul shots in the overtime addition—those shots won the game for the Eagles. Jerry Chandler led all scorers with 28 while Hawkins tallied 17.

The St. Albans Red Dragons fell before the balanced SC aggregation as Alex Hawkins scored his season's high of 24 points.

Seeking revenge for an early season defeat, the Chemists gave Stonewall Jackson its biggest scare of the season before the Generals pulled away to win 74-64. With Jerry Chandler gathering 32 points, the Eagles came within three points of the Generals in the last two minutes of the contest, but time consumed the winning hopes of the Eagle fans and contestants.

Charleston Catholic led briefly in the early minutes before SC came on to take the lead and gradually pull away to win the game 80-61. Forward Jack Shamblin played his season's best offensive game—he led the SC scorers with 18 points. Jack Johnson added 17; Alex Hawkins, 13; Joe Stroupe, 12; and Jerry Chandler rounded out the top scorers with 10 as five Chemists hit in the double figures.

The Black Eagles closed out their regular season with a triumph over a weak Charleston team as SC's balance continued to pay off. In the 78-61 victory, four Eagle cagers were credited with the double figures. Roy Haning led with 17 points; Hawkins tossed in 16; Chandler had 15; Jack Johnson gathered 12; Jack Shamblin tallied 9.

To Graduates of 1954

You have now become a member of a glorious Republic with certain of its responsibilities to shoulder. In working your way up the ladder of success you will each day meet new responsibilities. Do not shrink from these but carry them in a dutiful manner. By so doing you will help our Country continue its strength and vast fund of personal freedoms in a world where these personal freedoms are seldom found.

Good annuals, like good friends, become more endeared with the passing of the years. When life's sands are running low and you brush the dust from this book and turn its well worn pages to recall pleasant memories of friends long forgotten, we hope you shall recall also the friendship between this firm and your school which the printing of this annual brought about.

GOOD LUCK, SENIORS

MEMOIRS

To one whose breath and personality
is a refreshing as spring.
(your quotations) Maintain all your qualities in future years that all might benefit by it as many in the years have.
May all His richest blessings be upon you thro' all trials and tribulations — always,
Leonard

Lots of luck & love
May your live until the undertaker takes you under!
a friend (hope)
Dianne

Catey,

I wish you all the success in the future.
I hope we make it to Bible School together.
'Blessings on you!'
